

Entrepreneurial Leadership

“Paradigm Shifting and Extrapolation”

As an Entrepreneur...

What would it take for you to:

- Transform grand plans into realisable goals and outcomes?
- Identify the missing components of your plans to guarantee your success?.
- Expertly identify technical and operational resources to enact your vision?

Transforming an entrepreneurial idea from inception, through vision, strategy, operation to enactment, requires “out of the box” facilitation and paradigm shifts.

Brendan Norris, a successful entrepreneur, business strategist and paradigm shifter who assists individuals and businesses to create extraordinary results. By challenging existing problem-solving paradigms, he creates a context within which entrepreneurial genius can thrive. Much of his consultancy is to advise on the creation of sustainable and renewable energy solutions, enabling businesses to thrive in remote locations.

Expertise:

Brendan’s expertise lies in developing creative solutions by combining technology, lateral thinking and the essential personal change tools to ensure success.

Access Energy Transformation tools are used to address the underlying personal changes necessary for sustainable transformation.

Facilitation Options: Extrapolation “101”

One-on-one sessions to explore possibilities, create strategies and action plans. Regular “extrapolation” sessions using proven 7 part Conscious Leader / Entrepreneurial Framework. Face to face, phone or internet based.

Access Energy Transformation

Dynamic sessions using tools from Access Energy Transformation to shift underlying limitations.

Technology

Brendan’s extensive career over 20 years in Information Technology assists him identifying and implementing appropriate technology to explode your business ideas beyond commonly accepted possibilities. E.g. Internet, communications, online marketing, renewable energy.

Recent Projects:

- Creation of an “Off the Grid” Eco-Stay, providing renewable energy powered education & accommodation. OffGridEcoStay.com

- Founder of “The Path of Conscious Leadership”, a global platform to connect conscious leaders. PathOfConsciousLeadership.com

- Established publishing infrastructure to design, promote and distribute personal development books, CDs and e-books. LifeMyths.com

- Provided context for integrating strategic, technical and sustainable business solutions for Green Canary Australia, an ecological fund-raising platform.

- Joint author of Creating A Sustainable and Successful Practice Guide Book, workshops and teleseminars. BestTherapyPractice.com
